

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 2018-17-01

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND
FOR ORANGE AND OSCEOLA
COUNTIES, FLORIDA

AMENDED ORDER ON THE ASSIGNMENT OF CIRCUIT AND COUNTY JUDGES TO TEMPORARY DUTY IN THE CIRCUIT AND COUNTY COURTS
OF THE NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT FOR 2019

WHEREAS, pursuant to Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution and section 43.26, Florida Statutes, the chief judge of each judicial circuit is charged with the authority and the power to do everything necessary to promote the prompt and efficient administration of justice; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the chief judge's constitutional and statutory responsibility for administrative supervision of the courts within the circuit and to create and maintain an organization capable of effecting the efficient, prompt, and proper administration of justice for the citizens of this State, the chief judge is required to exercise direction, see Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.215(b)(2), (b)(3); and

WHEREAS, delegation of the Chief Justice's assignment power to the chief judges of the judicial circuits is necessary to the proper administration of our court system. As the administrative officer of all courts within a judicial circuit the chief judge is best equipped to assess the needs of each trial court and must be given flexibility to effectively utilize and allocate available judicial labor within the circuit accordingly; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215(b)(4), and acting under the Chief Justice's constitutional power to make temporary judicial assignments to ensure the speedy, efficient, and proper administration of justice, the chief judge may assign any judge to temporary service for which the judge is qualified in any court in the same circuit; and

WHEREAS, it has been officially made known to me that it is necessary for the prompt dispatch of the business of the Circuit and County Courts of the Ninth Judicial Circuit, respectively, that the Judges of the Circuit and County Courts of the Ninth Judicial Circuit be assigned to temporary duty in those courts; and

WHEREAS, the benefits of continued education and the sharing of information statewide realized through the attendance by circuit and county judges at the Florida Conference of Circuit Court Judges and the Florida Conference of County Court Judges, respectively, results in the great majority of circuit court judges or county court judges attending their respective conference at the same time. Consequently, during the conferences each year it is necessary to assign all circuit court judges as county court judges and all county court judges as acting circuit court judges whenever the need arises for emergency and temporary duty; and

WHEREAS, in an effort to allow judges of the entire Circuit to efficiently and effectively handle issues presented within the Circuit in a limited temporary or emergency capacity, eliminate the need to enter individualized orders weekly (or more often), and to avoid undue confusion and uncertainty for the public, litigants and others involved in the court system, this blanket Order assigns all circuit court judges as county court judges and all county court judges as acting circuit court judges whenever the need arises; and

WHEREAS, in accordance with Physicians Healthcare Plans, Inc. v. Pfeifler, 846 So. 2d 1129 (Fla. 2003), this Order does not divest a court of jurisdiction, it does not assign a county judge to exclusively circuit work, nor does it assign a circuit judge to exclusively county work. Further, in this time of crowded dockets and extremely limited resources in the state courts system, it is necessary to utilize judicial resources in a cost-effective manner to maximize the efficient administration of justice. See, e.g., State v. Brady, 985 So. 2d 656, 665 (Fla. 2d DCA 2008) in which the appellate court relied upon a similar order to find that a circuit court judge had jurisdiction as an acting county court judge to hear a misdemeanor DUI case;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frederick J. Lauten, pursuant to the authority vested in me as Chief Judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit of Florida under Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215, order the following, effective January 14, 2019, unless otherwise provided herein, and to continue until further order of this Court and superseding any provisions in prior Administrative Orders which may be inconsistent:
