

AMENDED ORDER GOVERNING FIRST APPEARANCE PROCEEDINGS, ORANGE COUNTY

The purpose of this Administrative Order is to provide for the efficient and effective processing of First Appearances and related matters.

By the power vested in the chief judge under Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution, section 43.26, Florida Statutes, and rule 2.215 of the Florida Rules of General Practice and Judicial Administration, effective January 1, 2024, to continue until further order and superseding any provisions in prior Administrative Orders which may be inconsistent, it is ORDERED that the following procedures, which originally became effective October 7, 2003, are amended as follows:

I. FIRST APPEARANCE JUDGE:

- A. County court judges assigned to criminal divisions shall perform First Appearances on any day that is not a weekend or holiday pursuant to a schedule published by the Administrative Judge of the County Court of Orange County or his/her designee. While the judge is serving as first appearance judge, the judge is temporarily assigned to Division 51 for paperwork processing and review of electronic court records.
- B. The first appearance judge shall conduct First Appearances, Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure 3.134 hearings, status hearings, arraignments, out of county warrants, and exercise any further jurisdiction as appropriate in the judge's discretion including taking a no contest or guilty plea on a misdemeanor, traffic, or municipal case.
- C. In the exercise of discretion, the first appearance judge shall take into consideration the recommendations of Corrections, Clerk of Court, Pre-Trial Release, mental health professionals and other institutional stakeholders.
- D. To reduce waste and comply with the Florida Supreme Court's paperless court record initiatives, court records related to First Appearance shall be electronic to the maximum extent possible.

II. ADA:

Orange County Jail personnel shall immediately contact the Court Administration 24 hour help line at (407) 836-0522 upon the booking of an individual who appears to need a sign language interpreter or other ADA accommodation. Court Administration will make arrangements to provide the services of a sign language interpreter for First Appearance.

III. MENTAL HEALTH:

The Orange County Mental Health Pretrial Release Program shall proceed in accordance with Administrative Order 2021-02, Order Governing Orange County Post-Booking Mental Health Jail Diversion Program.

IV. PRETRIAL MATTERS:

A. When charges have been filed:

If a charge (i.e., notice to appear, uniform traffic citation, information, or indictment) has been filed against a defendant, all pre-trial matters shall be determined by the judge assigned to preside over the defendant's criminal trial, unless some other order or agreement between judges provides otherwise.

B. When no charges have been filed:

Any motions related to bond after First Appearance must be heard by the assigned judge where the case is assigned.

C. Capacity of the Judge:

All judges determining pre-charge motions are acting as circuit judges, and appeals shall be to the Sixth District Court of Appeal.

D. Hearing of Motion to Set or Modify Bail by Alternate Judge or Chief Judge:

1. In accordance with law, applications to set or modify bail are to be heard "promptly." This Order contemplates a hearing will be held as soon as possible, but with due regard for the notice provisions of the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure and any other factor properly considered to allow the parties to have a fair opportunity to present their case at the hearing. If a judge is not able to hold a hearing on a motion to set or modify bail within three (3) business days, the movant may seek a hearing before that judge's alternate or the chief judge. The three-day period does not commence until filing of the motion and actual notice has been provided.
2. In those cases where the Information or Amended Information is filed between the time the bond hearing is noticed and the hearing or on the date of the hearing, the bond hearing shall proceed as previously scheduled at the discretion of the judge.
3. In order for a bond hearing to be properly noticed, the defendant and/or defendant's counsel must contact the assigned judge for any specific procedures, but at a minimum provide a copy of the notice and motion for the bond hearing to the State Attorney, the Office of Statewide Prosecutor, and to the court.

V. ESTABLISHMENT AND AVAILABILITY OF PRETRIAL RELEASE:

Orange County Pretrial Release Program shall proceed as set forth in Administrative Order No. 2022-01-02. Nothing in this Administrative Order prohibits the first appearance judge from denying Pretrial Release.

VI. MANDATORY FIRST APPEARANCE:

A. Section 903.011(6), Florida Statutes, states in pertinent part: A person may not be released before his or her First Appearance hearing . . . if the person meets and of the following criteria¹:

- (1) the person was, at the time of arrest for any felony, on pretrial release, probation, or community control in this state or another state;
- (2) The person was at the time of arrest, designated as a sexual offender or sexual predator in this state or any other state;
- (3) The person was arrested for violating a protective injunction;
- (4) The person was, at the time of arrest, on release from supervision under sections 947.1405, 947.146, 947.149, or 944.4731, Florida Statutes.
- (5) The person has, at any time before the current arrest, been sentenced pursuant to section 775.082(9) or section 775.084, Florida Statutes, as a prison releasee reoffender, habitual violent felony offender, three-time violent felony offender, or violent career criminal;
- (6) The person has been arrested three or more times in the six (6) months immediately preceding his or her arrest for the current offense; or
- (7) The person's current offense of arrest is for one or more of the following crimes:
 - (a) A capital felony, life felony, felony of the first degree, or felony of the second degree;
 - (b) A homicide under chapter 782; or any attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit a homicide;
 - (c) Assault in furtherance of a riot or an aggravated riot; felony battery; domestic battery by strangulation; domestic violence, as defined in section 741.28, Florida Statutes; stalking; mob intimidation; assault or battery on a law enforcement officer; assault or battery on a juvenile probation officer, or other staff of a detention center or commitment facility, or staff member of a commitment facility, or health services personnel; assault or battery on a person 65 years of age or older; robbery; carjacking; or resisting an officer with violence;

(d) Kidnapping, false imprisonment, human trafficking, or human smuggling;

(e) Possession of a firearm or ammunition by a felon, violent career criminal, or person subject to an injunction against committing acts of domestic violence, stalking, or cyberstalking.

(f) Sexual battery; indecent, lewd, or lascivious touching; exposure of sexual organs; incest; luring or enticing a child; or child pornography;

(g) Abuse, neglect, or exploitation of an elderly person or disabled adult;

(h) Child abuse or aggravated child abuse;

(i) Arson; riot, aggravated riot, inciting a riot, or aggravated inciting a riot; or burglary or theft during a riot;

(j) Escape; tampering or retaliating against a witness, victim, or informant; destruction of evidence; or tampering with a jury;

(k) Any offense committed for the purpose of benefitting, promoting, or furthering the interests of a criminal gang;

(l) Trafficking in a controlled substance, including conspiracy to engage in trafficking in a controlled substance;

(m) Racketeering; or

(n) Failure to appear at required court proceedings while on bail.

These persons are to be held until First Appearance, at which time the first appearance judge will decide conditions of release, if any.

B. Except as provided in section 907.041, Florida Statutes, every person charged with a crime or a violation of a municipal or county ordinance shall be entitled to pretrial release on reasonable conditions. The court may impose conditions of release as provided in section 903.047(a)(c), Florida Statutes. In addition, section 903.046, Florida Statutes, provides that the purpose of bail determinations in criminal proceedings is to ensure the appearance of the criminal defendant at subsequent proceedings and to protect the community against unreasonable danger from the criminal defendant.

C. Bond amounts prior to First Appearance are not intended to and do not bind the judge at First Appearance or at any subsequent bond hearing. Judges presiding over bond hearings shall consider the criteria for bond set forth in the applicable statute and rule and may not rely on the attached schedules.

D. Any motion for bail or bond for a defendant arrested for or charged with any of the offenses listed in A. above, except burglary of a structure or dwelling during a natural disaster/act of God, acts of terrorism, or war (i.e., looting during a state of emergency), shall include the following information: the charging affidavit and any other supporting documents; addresses and phone numbers of defendant; address and phone numbers of defendant's employers; and any aliases of defendant. A copy of such motion shall be forwarded to the Department of Corrections at their designated office.

VII. EXTRADITION AND OUT-OF-COUNTY WARRANTS:

- A. When an inmate of the Orange County Jail has had all local charges cleared and is detained solely and exclusively on a warrant from another jurisdiction, the Corrections staff shall immediately teletype to the other agency that the inmate must be picked up by a date and time certain or he/she will be released from jail on ROR or bond, unless the agency requests an extension for good cause shown. The same procedure shall be followed by the Sheriff's Extradition Deputy for out-of-state fugitives where the inmate has waived extradition or has been ordered surrendered after habeas corpus proceedings have been completed and notice of appeal was not filed or the appeal was dismissed or affirmed.
- B. The time periods shall not include Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, and shall be as follows:
1. Inmates held for contiguous Florida counties, e.g.: Osceola, Seminole, Polk, Lake, and Brevard - 24 hours from First Appearance; with no local charges;
 2. Inmates held for all other Florida counties - 72 hours from First Appearance with no local charges; and,
 3. Inmates held for other states - 30 days from date of notification.
- C. The telephone contact and teletype message from the Correctional Release Specialist or the Sheriff's Extradition Deputy shall provide a date and time certain for pickup.
- D. If the time deadline passes without the pickup agency requesting an extension for good cause, the Corrections staff or the Sheriff's Extradition Deputy, as the case may be, will notify the Clerk of Court within 24 hours from the next business day and the Clerk shall place the inmate on the next First Appearance docket. The first appearance judge shall set bond or make such other release determination. If the inmate is held on a Florida warrant, the ROR order shall direct that he/she report to the proper court on a date and to be scheduled by the jurisdiction issuing the warrant; if the bond is set or reduced, the order shall direct that the inmate report to the court on a date and to be scheduled by the jurisdiction issuing the warrant. If the inmate is held on an out-of-state charge, the order for ROR or setting bond shall direct that the inmate appear before the judge conducting fugitive hearings when notified. The Corrections staff or the Sheriff's Extradition Deputy shall immediately notify the pickup agency contact person by teletype that this action was taken, and shall mail a copy of the order to the contact person.

VIII. STATE ATTORNEY RELEASE/ERRONEOUS BOOKING:

- A. The State Attorney or his/her designee has the authority to release pre-trial detainees without the approval of the court. Such authority shall extend only to those prisoners whom the State Attorney has determined shall not be prosecuted for the instant charged offense. The State Attorney's office may initiate such an order of release by notifying the Orange County Department of Corrections by telephone, and immediately thereafter filing a No Information Notice or a Nolle Prosequi to effectuate the release of the defendant.
- B. After an accused person has been booked into the Orange County Department of Corrections and the arresting agency determines that an error occurred and the accused should be released, then Orange County Department of Corrections will release the accused provided as follows: (1) that the accused person has been properly identified; (2) the accused person does not have any outstanding warrants or writs which would hold the accused on another matter; (3) the arresting agency files with Orange County Department of Corrections an affidavit requesting release which includes an explanation of the alleged error.
- C. Nothing contained herein shall abrogate pretrial release, reduction of bond or other procedures established by Florida Law or Rule.

IX. VIOLENT FELONY OFFENDERS OF SPECIAL CONCERN:

Persons arrested for new law violations who have been identified as a violent felony offender of special concern pursuant to the Anti-Murder Act, sections 903.0351, 948.06, and 948.064, Florida Statutes, but have not yet been arrested for a violation of probation, shall be placed on a five (5) day administrative hold. Orange County Corrections shall immediately notify the Department of Corrections of the new arrest so that the Department of Corrections can take the appropriate action.

X. ESTABLISHMENT OF PERSONS TO BE PRESENTED FOR FIRST APPEARANCE HEARINGS AND PROCEDURES FOR FIRST APPEARANCE HEARINGS:

A. Persons to be Presented for First Appearance Hearings:

Florida Rule of Criminal Procedure 3.130(a) requires that every person arrested on a criminal charge who is still in custody 24 hours after arrest must be taken before a judge for a First Appearance hearing unless such person was previously arrested and released from custody on that same charge. Persons who fall into the following categories, and only those persons, including those listed in section 903.011(6), Florida Statutes, will be presented for First Appearance hearings in Orange County.

1. Arrest without warrant;
2. Arrest under an "at large" capias;
3. Initial arrest under an "at large" arrest warrant;
4. Arrest under a Failure to Appear (FTA) warrant where the person was never

- arrested but served with a summons and failed to appear for arraignment;
5. Persons arrested via a charging affidavit for violating the special condition of probation requiring that the defendant not return to the “prostitution mapping zone” must appear at the First Appearance proceedings and at such proceedings the judge may set a bond of the defendant’s release;
 6. Persons arrested via a charging affidavit for on view violation of probation conditions by officer;
 7. Persons arrested on violation of probation or violation of community control warrants;
 8. Persons arrested who have not been released on monetary conditions and are certified eligible, pursuant to section 907.041(3)(b), Florida Statutes, to be released into the Orange County Pretrial Release Program;
 9. Persons turned in by bail bond agent (TIBB) prior to arraignment;
 10. Persons with a hold preventing release, including errors in identifying additional cases the person is currently out on bond or other release status as more fully set forth is E below;
 11. Persons set forth in Section VII.D.
 12. Persons arrested for a felony of the second degree
 13. Persons arrested for a sex-offense related to a felony of the third degree.

B. Persons Not to be Presented at First Appearance Hearings are:

1. Persons arrested on civil writs;
2. Persons turned in by bail bond agent (TIBB) after arraignment;
3. Persons who prison control release (PCR) or ROR release was revoked (unless an error prevented the first appearance judge from identifying the case during the original First Appearance);
4. Persons arrested on a contempt of court warrant;
5. Persons with a summons issued that has never been served (person may be seen for the charge arrested, but not the non-served charge until the State perfects service).

C. If there is any doubt as to whether an arrested person should be presented for a First Appearance hearing, that doubt should be resolved in favor of the defendant appearing at the First Appearance.

D. Operational Procedures for First Appearances Held in Orange County:

1. There are two sessions for First Appearance hearings in Orange County, Florida, Monday through Friday, except on holidays and weekends. The time frames outlined in the following sections are subject to change with as much notice as is possible under the circumstances. However, no case where a victim is required to be notified shall be moved up without the victim’s knowledge. Additionally, any move-ups must be coordinated with Corrections, PTR, Clerk of Court, State Attorney and Public Defender to ensure it can be accomplished.

- q. When Session One is completed, the trial clerk will scan copies of the Orders of Commitment signed by the first appearance judge to the Judicial Processing Team workflow labeled "FA-BRC Courts" or such other procedures adopted by the Clerk of Court.

E. First Appearance Detainer:

Corrections staff may place a first appearance detainer on defendants under the following circumstances and those individuals will be presented for First Appearance at the next session so that the first appearance judge may properly consider all factors in setting release conditions:

1. Defendants listed in VI. above.
2. Defendant currently on release arrested for a new violation that occurred after the offense for which the defendant is on release.
3. Defendant previously appeared at First Appearance and upon processing for release, Corrections staff determines the first appearance judge was not provided information about all of the cases the defendant is currently out on bond or other release condition.

4. There shall be no first appearance detainer for an unserved summons or for notices to appear, or in cases where defendant was found incompetent to proceed.
5. There shall be no first appearance detainer where a defendant is arrested for a failure to appear warrant/capias. The mere fact that defendant has other cases is not sufficient for a first appearance detainer.

XI. PRETRIAL DETENTION:

A defendant arrested for a dangerous crime set forth in section 907.041, Florida Statutes, that is a capital felony, a life felony, or a felony of the first degree and the first appearance judge determines there is probable cause to believe the defendant committed the offense, shall be ordered to pretrial detention. The first appearance judge shall provide the defendant the date of the pretrial detention hearing, which shall be within five (5) days of the First Appearance. The State Attorney shall file its motion for pretrial detention within 24 business hours of the First Appearance. The Clerk of Court shall notify the assigned judge that a pretrial detention hearing has been set within twelve (12) hours of First Appearance.

XII. RETURNABLE DATES AND LOCATIONS:

A. Felonies: Persons arrested for felony offenses and released from jail prior to arraignment are to report to the Orange County Courthouse, 425 North Orange Avenue, Orlando, Florida, for arraignment when notified by the Clerk of the Court.

B. Misdemeanors:

1. Misdemeanors returnable to the downtown courthouse (Orlando Division):

Persons arrested for misdemeanor offenses which will be heard in the Orange County Courthouse in Orlando and who were released prior to arraignment, will be ordered to report before a judge of the appropriate division of County Court of Orange County, to the courthouse upon dates and at locations set from time to time by the Administrative Judge of the County Court of Orange County or his/her designee.

2. Misdemeanors returnable to any branch courthouse:

Persons arrested for misdemeanor offenses which will be heard in one of the branch courthouses, and who were released prior to arraignment, will be ordered to report before a judge of the appropriate division of County Court of Orange County, to a branch courthouse upon dates and locations set from time to time by the Administrative Judge of the County Court of Orange County or his/her designee.

C. Traffic Offenses:

1. Traffic offenders returnable to the downtown courthouse:

Persons arrested for traffic offenses which will be heard in the Orange County Courthouse in Orlando and who were released prior to arraignment, will be ordered to report before a judge of the appropriate division of County Court of Orange County, to the courthouse upon dates and at locations set from time to time by the Administrative Judge of the County Court of Orange County or his/her designee.

2. Traffic offenders returnable to any branch courthouse:

Persons arrested for traffic offenses which will be heard in one of the branch courthouses, and who were released prior to arraignment, will be ordered to report before a judge of the appropriate division of County Court of Orange County, to a branch courthouse upon dates and locations set from time to time by the Administrative Judge of the County Court of Orange County or his/her designee.

D. Persons released from custody after having appeared for arraignment in any court shall report on whatever date was scheduled at arraignment.

XIII. MOTIONS FOR RELEASE PURSUANT TO RULE 3.134:

A. Defense counsel and self-represented defendants shall file with the Clerk's Office Motions for Release and Notices of Hearings addressing violation of Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure 3.134 by 12:00 p.m. on the business day before the scheduled hearing and shall simultaneously forward via the most expeditious means possible, including e-mail, copies of the Motions and Notices to all interested persons, including the judicial assistant for the judge who is to preside over the hearing, the persons with the State Attorney's Office and the Orange County Sheriff's Office.

B. Immediately upon receipt of the Notice of Hearing and if possible by 12:00 p.m. on the business day before the scheduled hearing, the judicial assistant for the judge who is to preside over the hearing shall forward via the most expeditious means possible, including e-mail, copies of the Notices to the persons with the State Attorney's Office and the persons with the Clerk of Court's Office.

C. Should defense counsel or self-represented defendants file on a Friday or day prior to a holiday, the matter will be scheduled on the next following business day.
