

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 2012-03-01

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR ORANGE AND
OSCEOLA COUNTIES, FLORIDA

AMENDED ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER ESTABLISHING NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT CIVIL COURT GUIDELINES

WHEREAS, pursuant to Article V, Section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution and section 43.26, Florida Statutes, the chief judge of each judicial circuit is charged with the authority and the power to do everything necessary to promote the prompt and efficient administration of justice; and

WHEREAS, to create and maintain an organization capable of effecting the efficient, prompt, and proper administration of justice for the citizens of this State, the chief judge is required to exercise direction, see Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.215(b)(2), (b)(3); and

WHEREAS, standardized procedures and manners of communication between the parties and the court best serve the interests of those that come before the court, preserve valuable judicial resources and prevent confusion and delay; and

WHEREAS, the Ninth Judicial Circuit Civil Courts Commission (Commission) was tasked with, and did submit to the Court, recommendations for accomplishing standardized procedures for the Circuit Civil Divisions of the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court; and

WHEREAS, the Court expresses its sincere appreciation to the Commission and the 2010-11 Chair, David King Esq., for their dedication and commitment in undertaking this daunting task, reaching agreement on the recommendations, and for the usefulness and success for the last eight years of the standardized procedures adopted by the Commission; and,

WHEREAS, the resulting effort and work product of the Commission has served as the foundation of this Order since 2012, however, there have been updates as necessary; and

WHEREAS, in order to provide effective coordination and in the interest of promoting judicial economy, the prompt and efficient administration of justice and in service to the citizens of the Ninth Circuit;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Donald A. Myers, Jr., in order to facilitate the efficient operation of the administration of justice, and pursuant to the authority vested in me as Chief Judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit of Florida under Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215, hereby order that, effective immediately unless otherwise provided herein, to continue until further order, and superseding any provisions in prior Administrative Orders which may be inconsistent, as follows:

1. Orange County only: During non-trial weeks, each circuit civil division shall schedule one hour to hear both ex parte and short matters at 8:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday. During times when the judge is scheduled to be out of the office, notice shall be posted on the Judicial Automated Calendaring System. Ex parte matters shall be heard first whenever possible. For purposes of this Order, an ex parte matter is defined as a purely uncontested matter and a short matter is defined as a contested matter that requires less than ten (10) minutes of the court's time.
2. Orange County only: During trial weeks, each circuit civil division in trial shall either arrange for coverage for ex parte and short matters by another division not in trial or shall schedule a minimum of thirty (30) minutes to hear both ex parte and short matters at 8:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday. During times when the judge is scheduled to be out of the office, notice shall be posted on the Judicial Automated Calendaring System. Ex parte matters shall be heard first whenever possible.

For purposes of this Order, an ex parte matter is defined as a purely uncontested matter and a short matter is defined as a contested matter that requires less than ten (10) minutes of the court's time.

3. If an ex parte or short matter is to start late or be covered by a different division, without prior notice, attorneys and litigants shall be made aware through the posting of a note on the hearing room door.
4. In the interest of judicial economy and promotion of the prompt and efficient administration of justice, all circuit civil judges shall start ex parte, short matter and regular hearings on time and all judges shall strictly enforce allotted hearing time between attorneys.
5. In the event that a party seeks to cancel a previously scheduled hearing, the party must telephone the judge's judicial assistant and file a notice of cancellation. The telephone cancellation must immediately be followed up with an e-mail correspondence.
6. A mandatory meet and confer process is hereby established, as set forth below, for all motions to be set for hearing in the circuit civil division and to occur before scheduling the hearing except for the following motions: injunctive relief without notice; judgment on the pleadings; summary judgment; or to permit maintenance of a class action.

Counsel with full authority to resolve the matter shall confer before scheduling the hearing on the motion to attempt to resolve or otherwise narrow the issues raised in the motion, and include a Certificate of Compliance (attached hereto as “Exhibit A”) that the conference has occurred in the Notice of Hearing filed with the court. It shall be the responsibility of counsel who schedules the hearing to arrange the conference.

The term “confer” requires a substantive conversation in person or by telephone or video conference in a good faith effort to resolve the motion without the need to schedule a hearing, and does not envision an exchange of ultimatums by fax, e-mail or letter. Counsel who merely attempt to confer have not conferred for purposes of this Order.

Counsel must respond promptly to inquiries and communications from opposing counsel who notices the hearing and is attempting to schedule the conference. If counsel who notices the hearing is unable to reach opposing counsel to conduct the conference after three (3) good faith attempts, counsel who notices the hearing must identify in the Certificate of Compliance the dates and times of the efforts made to contact opposing counsel.

Counsel shall include in the Notice of Hearing the Certificate of Compliance certifying that the meet and confer occurred (or did not occur and setting out the good faith attempts to schedule the conference) and identifying the date of the conference, the names of the participating attorneys, and the specific results obtained.

Counsel who notices the hearing shall ensure that the court and the court’s judicial assistant are aware of any narrowing of the issues or other resolution as a result of the conference.

7. Counsel is required to provide the court (and opposing counsel) with courtesy copies of any memoranda, case law or any other materials on which counsel may rely at a scheduled hearing at least five (5) court days before the scheduled hearing.
8. A party seeking to schedule hearing time shall check the Judicial Automated Calendaring System (JACS) via the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court website

(<http://www.ninthcircuit.org/>) for available time slots. The party shall then either call or send an e-mail correspondence, depending on the judicial assistant's preference, to the judicial assistant to confirm the hearing time.

9. All communications from a party, other than those relating solely to scheduling hearing time, with a judicial assistant for any given matter before the court shall be by telephone or by e-mail correspondence, depending on the judicial assistant's preference. If the judicial assistant requests a follow-up or confirmation e-mail correspondence, the party shall comply.
10. As the court system continues to move toward a paperless system, and as technology related to electronic filing, scheduling of hearing time, conducting of hearings and other related matters continues to become available, judges, judicial assistants and parties appearing before the court are strongly encouraged to utilize said technology when feasible. Where court technologies as contemplated by this Order or other Circuit or statewide orders become the standard, use of such technologies will be required without need for amendment of this Order.

DONE AND ORDERED at Orlando, Florida, this 24 day of September, 2020.

Donald A. Myers, Jr.
Chief Judge
