The conduct of the attorneys who are the subject of such complaints shall be reviewed and addressed in a prompt, informal, respectful, non-punitive, educational and constructive manner, as may be appropriate.

3. PROCEDURES

The Local Professionalism Panel shall generally follow these procedures:

A. Referrals from Judicial Officers or Quasi Judicial Officers:

i. When any Judicial Officer or Quasi Judicial Officer within the Ninth Judicial Circuit determines in good faith that an attorney has engaged in conduct inconsistent with the Ideals and Standards, the matter may be referred to the Local Professionalism Panel by completing the Referral Form, attached hereto as “Exhibit A” and submitting it to the Chief Judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit for referral to the Panel.

ii. Process: The Chairperson of the Local Professionalism Panel may address a letter on behalf of such Panel to the Respondent Attorney inviting that attorney to meet with a designated three-person subgroup of the Local Professionalism Panel on a date and time specified to review, discuss, and endeavor to resolve the matter.

B. Referrals from Attorneys and Non-Attorneys:

i. By an Attorney: If an attorney observes conduct on the part of another attorney that he or she believes, in good faith, is inconsistent with the applicable Ideals and Standards, the referring attorney may request the Local Professionalism Panel consider the matter by completing the Referral Form and submitting it to the Chief Judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit for referral to the Panel.

ii. By a Non-Attorney: If a non-attorney person is directly and adversely affected by conduct of an attorney that is inconsistent with the applicable Ideals and Standards, that person may request that the Local Professionalism Panel consider the matter by completing the Referral Form and submitting it to the Chief Judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit for referral to the Panel.

iii. Page Limits for Referral from Attorney and Non-Attorney:

The Complaint shall be completed on the form attached hereto as “Exhibit A” and limited to two (2) pages, exclusive of the exhibits.

C. Referrals from the Florida Bar’s Attorney Consumer Assistance Program (ACAP):

The Local Professionalism Panel may accept referrals from ACAP through the office of the Chief Judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit.

D. Processing Referrals from Attorneys, Non-Attorneys and ACAP:

Upon receipt of a referral by an attorney, non-attorney, or ACAP, the Chairperson of the Local Professionalism Panel shall review the request, may consult with the other Local Professionalism Panel members and, if the matter is accepted for review by the Local Professionalism Panel, the Chairperson shall address a letter by e-mail and hard copy, certified mail, to the Respondent Attorney that:

- i. notifies the Respondent Attorney of the referral;
- ii. may request a response; and
- iii. may invite the Respondent Attorney to meet in person with a designated three-person subgroup of the Local Professionalism Panel on a date and time specified.

4. GENERAL MATTERS

A. Letters Sent by Local Professionalism Panel:

Any correspondence sent by the Local Professionalism Panel to a Respondent Attorney requesting that the Respondent Attorney appear before the Panel shall identify in general terms the conduct alleged to be inconsistent with or in disregard of the Ideals and Standards. The correspondence shall also advise the Respondent Attorney that the Local Professionalism Panel meeting is a non-disciplinary proceeding. The request may also include general references to the Ideals and Standards alleged to have been breached. The letter shall also advise the Respondent Attorney that if he or she fails to appear before the Local Professionalism Panel without being excused beforehand then the Local Professionalism Panel will proceed with its meeting and decide whether to address the request or refer it to ACAP for resolution.

B. Panel Meetings:

The Chairperson and the Local Professionalism Panel members may meet with the Respondent Attorney at the date and time specified in the letter. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss with the Respondent Attorney the conduct alleged to be inconsistent with the Ideal and Standards and attempt to resolve the alleged inconsistent conduct or behavior. The Chairperson may send a letter summarizing the Local Professionalism Panel's discussions and suggestions to the Respondent Attorney.

If the Respondent Attorney fails to appear for the meeting, the Local Professionalism Panel members present shall discuss the conduct or behavior alleged to be inconsistent with the Ideals and Standards, and may summarize the Local Professionalism Panel's discussions by letter to the Respondent Attorney. Consistent with the provisions of paragraph 4.A of this Order, the Local Professionalism Panel may consider the Respondent Attorney's failure to appear in determining whether referral of the matter to ACAP is appropriate.

C. Forty-Five (45) Days to Resolve:

The Local Professionalism Panel should strive to resolve all referrals within forty-five (45) days of receipt of the referral.

D. Resolution:

Upon conferring with each other and conducting an appropriate review and investigation, the Local Professionalism Panel members may resolve the issues in any one or more of the following non-punitive, educational and constructive ways to provide the Respondent Attorney with proper incentives for professional-improvement:

- i. The Chairperson may issue an oral or written decision to the Respondent Attorney;

ii. The Local Professionalism Panel, in its discretion, may refer the Respondent Attorney to the Orange County Bar Association's Mentorship program or may communicate with an assisting mentor of the Respondent Attorney;

iii. The Local Professionalism Panel may refer the Respondent Attorney to "The Florida Bar's Ethics School," which is an eight (8) hour ethics course, and/or any other course(s) deemed appropriate;

iv. The Local Professionalism Panel may provide the Respondent Attorney with specific recommendations or guidelines that will assist the attorney in the future;

v. The Local Professionalism Panel, in appropriate circumstances, may refer the Respondent Attorney to "Florida Lawyers Assistance," or other similar, appropriate program(s), for assistance with drug, alcohol and/or emotional problems;

vi. Pursuant to Section 2.1 of AOSC13-688, the Local Professionalism Panel has the discretion to direct any referrals to ACAP, depending upon the nature and severity of the referral or in the event the Respondent Attorney fails or refuses to meet with the Panel upon proper request; or

vii. The Local Professionalism Panel may recommend any other solution it deems to be appropriate or necessary.

Depending upon the circumstances, Respondent's failure to follow the recommendations of the Local Professionalism Panel may be a basis for referral to ACAP.

E. Confidentiality:

All records regarding referrals to the Local Professionalism Panel shall be handled in the manner set forth in AOSC13-688 and as outlined in Rule 3-7.1, The Rules Regulating the Florida Bar, regarding the confidentiality of disciplinary investigations and proceedings.

F. Indemnity:

All members of the Local Professionalism Panel acting within the scope of their duties under this Order shall be entitled to protections and immunities to the same extent and under the same privileges accorded mediators and arbitrators pursuant to sections 44.106 and 44.107, Florida Statutes.

Administrative Order 2014-07-01 is vacated and set aside and has been incorporated and/or amended herein. Vacating an Administrative Order that vacates a prior Order does not revive the prior Order.
