

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 2023-17

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR ORANGE AND OSCEOLA
COUNTIES, FLORIDA

ORDER ON THE ASSIGNMENT OF CIRCUIT AND COUNTY JUDGES TO TEMPORARY DUTY IN THE CIRCUIT AND COUNTY COURTS OF THE NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT FOR 2024

Pursuant to the authority of Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.215, and to promote the efficient and timely disposition of judicial business in the Circuit and County Courts of the Ninth Judicial Circuit of Florida, delegation of the Chief Justice's assignment power to the chief judges of the judicial circuits is necessary to the proper administration of our court system. As the administrative officer of all courts within a judicial circuit the chief judge is best equipped to assess the needs of each trial court and must be given flexibility to effectively utilize and allocate available judicial labor within the circuit accordingly.

Acting under the Chief Justice's constitutional power to make temporary judicial assignments to ensure the speedy, efficient, and proper administration of justice, the chief judge may assign any judge to temporary service for which the judge is qualified in any court in the same circuit. It is necessary for the prompt dispatch of the business of the Circuit and County Courts of the Ninth Judicial Circuit, respectively, that the Judges of the Circuit and County Courts of the Ninth Judicial Circuit be assigned to temporary duty in those courts.

The benefits of continued education and the sharing of information statewide realized through the attendance by circuit and county judges at the Florida Conference of Circuit Court Judges and the Florida Conference of County Court Judges, respectively, results in the great majority of circuit court judges or county court judges attending their respective conference at the same time. Consequently, during the conferences each year it is necessary to assign all circuit court judges as county court judges and all county court judges as acting circuit court judges whenever the need arises for emergency and temporary duty.

In an effort to allow judges of the entire Circuit to efficiently and effectively handle issues presented within the Circuit in a limited temporary or emergency capacity, eliminate the need to enter individualized orders weekly (or more often), and to avoid undue confusion and uncertainty for the public, litigants and others involved in the court system, this blanket Order assigns all circuit court judges as county court judges and all county court judges as acting circuit court judges whenever the need arises.

In accordance with Physicians Healthcare Plans, Inc. v. Pfeifler, 846 So. 2d 1129 (Fla. 2003), this Order does not divest a court of jurisdiction, it does not assign a county judge to exclusively circuit work, nor does it assign a circuit judge to exclusively county work. Further, in this time of crowded dockets and extremely limited resources in the state courts system, it is necessary to utilize judicial resources in a cost-effective manner to maximize the efficient administration of justice. See, e.g., State v. Brady, 985 So. 2d 656, 665 (Fla. 2d DCA 2008) in which the appellate court relied upon a similar order to find that a circuit court judge had jurisdiction as an acting county court judge to hear a misdemeanor DUI case.

By the power vested in the chief judge under Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution, section 43.26, Florida Statutes, and rule 2.215 of the Florida Rules of General Practice and Judicial Administration, effective January 1, 2024, to continue until further order and superseding any provisions in prior Administrative Orders which may be inconsistent, it is ORDERED:

1. I hereby assign and designate the following Circuit Judges of the Ninth Judicial

These County Judges shall also consider those matters which arise during their assignment as emergency duty judge and other matters assigned to them by the Chief Judge that the Circuit Judges of the Ninth Judicial Circuit are unable to hear or dispose of because of crowded dockets in all levels of the court system. In this manner, when, by some good fortune, judicial time is available, crowded dockets can be alleviated.

4. The said Judges of the Circuit and County Courts of the Ninth Judicial Circuit, as above named, under and by virtue of the authority hereof, each vested, individually, with all and singular the powers and prerogatives conferred by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Florida upon a Judge of the Courts to which they are hereby temporarily assigned.

DONE AND ORDERED at Orlando, Florida, this 9th day of November, 2023.

Lisa T. Munyon
